Policy Overview

The misuse of modifiers that override correct coding edits represents challenges for payors. Centene will institute a prepayment clinical claims review on all procedures billed with modifier -25. A registered nurse will review the information billed on the claim, along with the member and provider's claim history to determine whether or not it is likely that the modifier was used correctly for the circumstances of the patient on the date of service. The Health Plan, and its vendors, will use nationally published guidelines from CPT and CMS when determining whether or not the modifier was used correctly.

Both CPT and CMS in the NCCI policy manual specify that by using a modifier 25 the provider is indicating that a "significant, separately identifiable evaluation and management service (was provided) by the same physician on the same day of the procedure or other service". Additional CPT guidelines state that this significant and separable service must be "above and beyond" the other service provided or beyond the usual preoperative and postoperative care associated with the procedure that was performed.

The NCCI policy manual states that "If a procedure has a global period of 000 or 010 days, it is defined as a minor surgical procedure. (Osteopathic manipulative therapy and chiropractic manipulative therapy have global periods of 000.) The decision to perform a minor surgical procedure is included in the value of the minor surgical procedure and should not be reported separately as an E&M service. However, a significant and separately identifiable E&M service unrelated to the decision to perform the minor surgical procedure is separately reportable with modifier 25. The E&M service and minor surgical procedure do not require different diagnoses. If a minor surgical procedure is performed on a new patient, the same rules for reporting E&M services apply. The fact that the patient is "new" to the provider is not sufficient alone to justify reporting an E&M service on the same date of service as a minor surgical procedure. NCCI does contain some edits based on these principles, but the Medicare Carriers and A/B MACs processing practitioner service claims have separate edits.

Reimbursement

Claims Reimbursement Edit

The Health Plan's clinical code auditing software will flag all provider claims billed with the modifier -25 for prepayment clinical validation. Clinical validation occurs prior to claims payment. Once a claim has been clinically validated, it is either released for payment or denied for incorrect use of the modifier.

PAYMENT POLICY

Modifier -25

Rationale for Edit

Modifier -25 should only be used to indicate that a “significant, separately identifiable evaluation and management service (was provided) by the same physician on the same day of the procedure or other service.”

Pre-payment Clinical Claims review

A significant, separately identifiable E/M service is defined or substantiated by documentation that satisfies the relevant criteria for the respective E/M service to be reported. If medical records do not indicate that significant, separately identifiable services were performed, Centene covers the primary procedure or other service, and denies the secondary E/M billed with Modifier 25.

To avoid incorrect denials providers should assign all applicable diagnosis codes that indicate what the need for additional E/M services.

Utilization

Appeals/Reconsiderations

In the event the claims documentation is insufficient to support billing modifier 25, the provider will receive a denial determination on their explanation of payment (EOP). The provider may submit an appeal or reconsideration request according to the guidelines outlined in the provider manual. Please submit all pertinent medical records for the date of service and procedures billed.

Medical records should not be submitted on the first time claims submission as first time claim review consists only of a review of the information documented on the claim and in the member/provider history. Medical records should only be submitted once the provider receives a denial and wishes to request a reconsideration or appeal

Documentation Requirements

The following guidelines will be used to determine whether or not modifier 25 was used appropriately. If any one of the following conditions is met then reimbursement for the E/M service is recommended

- If the E/M service is the first time the provider has seen the patient or evaluated a major condition
- A diagnosis on the claim indicates that a separate medical condition was treated in addition to the procedure that was performed
- The patient’s condition is worsening as evidenced by diagnostic procedures being performed on or around the date of services
- If a provider bills supplies or equipment, on or around the same date, that are unrelated to the procedure performed but would have required an E/M service to determine the patient’s need
